Weather Thursday: High 40, low 19, Rel. Hum. 32 . . . The usual tragedies are reported here and there to bring sadness to many people, but most of the people are Christmas minded, busy with shopping and plans and numerous religious services which remind us that if there had been no Christ there would be no Christmas and the hundreds of good things that come to all human beings. Additional contributions to the lighted Christmas trees on Trade St. to wish everyone a Merry Christmas have come in from Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver G. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dedmondt, Mrs. Glen T. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Souther, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Bacon, Mrs. David Wenstrand, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baxter (sent from Honolulu, Hawaii.) . . . The Town of Columbus is, also attractively decorated with individual trees. A Nativity scene has been put up on the Court House lawn. The decorations are better than ever. The Outlook Club, the local literary group, the Volunteer Firemen and others in the community cooperated to put on this beautiful scene for Christmas. Everybody is invited to drive over and see it . . .

Hatch Mill Party Tonight

The annual Christmas party for about 300 employees of the Hatch Mill, Columbus, will be held tonight at Sunnydale. Only about 200 will be able to be present.

A turkey dinner will be served and the Christmas program will be followed by dancing.

George L. Thompson will be master of ceremonies. The program includes some welcome remarks by Supt. Jack Craig; singing of Christmas Carols; piano solo by Ernest Caston; vocal solo by Fred Powell; other features by E. E. Caston, J. V. Roberts, DeWitt Smith, George Pritchard, Herbert Jackson, William Bivens.

Various skits will be put on and music will be given by Russ Fike Band of Spartanburg.

Hosts and hostesses for the event include Mrs. Irene Summey, Miss Ella Mae Camp, Mrs. Juanita Davis, Mrs. Marion Kesterson, Mrs. Edith McFarland, Mrs. Marjorie Feagan, Frank Burgess, Norris Owens, Howard Tipton, James Edwards, Dean Shields, Grover Hutcherson.

"Eternally Yours" For A Hole In the Ground

By Della H. D. Jackson

In reviewing the progress and development of the Stony Knoll Library Project, I find that there is one thing which we have attempted to do more than once, but have not been successful in realizing it. That one thing is to raise funds to have a well dug on the library grounds.

Early in the growth of the library a club grew a "patch" of cotton to have a well dug. We netted $13, in this project. No one would begin the work for that
