

Congregational Sunday School Party Tuesday At 7:30 P. M.

The Congregational Church and Sunday school will have their annual Christmas program Tuesday night at 7:30 at the church house. Mrs. Albert Raditz will direct the program, "Let's Keep Christmas", adapted from Peter Marshall's sermon. John L. Brown is superintendent of the Sunday school.

WILLIAM COPELAND

Funeral services for William Copeland 84, of near Landrum, who died Friday were conducted Sunday at 3 p. m. at the Landrum First Baptist Church by the Revs. Henry Anderson, C. B. Prince and A. M. Jones. Burial was in Landrum Cemetery.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Emma Watson Copeland; two sons, James and Alex of Landrum R-2; two daughters, Mrs. Lizzie Miller of Landrum and Mrs. Olivia Burton of Iva R-1; one brother, J. C. Copeland of Rutherfordton; two sisters, Mrs. E. T. Dobbins of Rutherfordton and Mrs. W. C. Hardin of Forest City; 13 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Dr. Edmund M. Wylie has gone to Penn Valley, near Philadelphia to spend the Christmas holidays with his daughter, Mrs. J. H. Slater and family. Enroute home to Tryon he will spend New Year's holidays in Richmond, Va., with his younger daughter, and family. Dr. and Mrs. James Sydnor and children.

Tryon students home from St. Genevieve-of-the-Pines, Asheville include Misses Carolyn Placak, Leslie Taylor, Annette Gagnier, Cornelia McLean, Miss Suzette Gagnier is spending the holidays in Havana, Cuba.

Dr. and Mrs. Austin Woody have as a guest for the holidays, Mrs. Woody's mother, Mrs. H. G. Eller, of New Jersey and Rock Ledge, Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Clark and son, Alfred, of Crossville, Tenn., are spending the holidays with Mr. Clark's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lankford in Tryon.

SANTA CLAUS

—will—

COME TO TOWN TUESDAY NITE

... and again we will be open until 9 o'clock for the convenience of those who are too busy to attend to their Christmas shopping during the day. We hope to be of particular help to the men of the families who are not certain what will most please those of the fairer sex—on their Christmas lists. We are quite sure that in one of the stores listed below you will be able to find anything her heart desires.

Hot coffee and a warm welcome for the cold and weary at:

The Blue Ridge Weavers
The Book Shelf
The Hearthside
Red Bird Associates
The Betty Sturgis Shop
The Tack Shop
Valhalla Handweavers

Until Nine Tuesday Night