TRYON, N. C. TUESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1953

Weather Monday: High 50, low 23, rain .53, Rel. Hum. 95. Last night was a London night and the air was almost saturated with water. Airplane schedules were cancelled. Clearing weather promised today. Russia has agreed, conditionally of course, to talk about pooling atomic energy. Mossadegh, former premier of Iran found guilty of treason and sentenced only to three years . . . Some big events in Tryon TODAY. Santa Claus rides the Tryon Fire Truck at 6 p. m., bringing over a thousand bags of fruit and candy to all the young people present at 6 o'clock near the post office. At 7:30 the Congregational Church School will have their Family Christmas program. At 8 o'clock Tryon First Baptist Church will present "A Child Is Born", put on by a professional cast from the famous Vagabond Players of Flat Rock. Admission is free and the public is invited. All the gift shops and some of the stores will be open until 9 o'clock. Good movies are on; so there are a variety of choices for entertainment tonight. One of the big nights of the year in Tryon. Please give the Bulletin the names of your holiday guests.

U. S. egg production in each of the last five months has been larger than a year earlier.

Western Union Changes To Agency In Tryon

The Western Union Telegraph office has been changed to an agency, effective Dec. 23, but will remain in its present quarters in the Hester building with the Tryon Chamber of Commerce acting as agent. Mrs. Edith Roach McKaig, who has been the operator for a number of years, will remain in charge of the office, and in addition will assume the duties of the assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, an office formerly held by Mrs. Sibyl Brendall.

J. Lee Lavender is secretary of the organization; Leo Milhaupt, president.

N. C. Ramsey of the Western Union Plant Dept., in Asheville is in Tryon making the necessary physical changes. Plans call for the office to be open at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m., except on Wednesday when it will be open only from 8 a. m. to 1 p. m., and on Sunday when it will be closed all day. Arrangements can be made to telephone messages to Hendersonville office when the telegraph office is closed in Tryon.

Mrs. Brendall who has been the assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will remain in the office of the Hester Real Estate and Insurance Co., and do public stenographic work.

The Misses Gabrielle and Charley Austin of Greenville, S. C., will spend the holidays in Tryon with their aunt, Mrs. Samuel S. Woody on Lindcourt Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crissone of Tryon are the parents of a boy, born Dec. 22 at 2:55 a. m., at St. Luke's Hospital.
