TRYON, N. C. MONDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1953

Tryon police department reports a quiet Christmas weekend. No deaths, serious accidents or other tragedies. The usual get together of families and friends. Chief Lewis Lindsey asks that a notice be put in the paper to thank all those who contributed so generously to their Christmas presents. He said it was mighty nice of the people to think of them and that they greatly appreciate it. . . . After Christmas Sales are getting under way now in Tryon stores. It will pay our readers to watch the ads in the Bulletin and take advantage of these savings. You can't make money any easier or quicker. The Bulletin is the best advertising medium in this area. The merchant gets all the benefits of direct mail advertising because the Bulletin is so small. He has no addressing or mailing to do. An ad in the Bulletin is a great time saver, money saver and worry saver. It will make money for the merchant as well as for the customer if the merchant has something to offer that appeals to the consumer. Everyone is busy trying to close out the old year and get ready for the new. . . .

Miss Ann Harris of Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte, spent the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Harris.

Tryon Fire Department

Wishes to take this means of thanking one and all for helping to make our Christmas Tree Party for the kids a success. Especially do we thank all those who contributed money and to the Vinings for the fine publicity they always give us in the Bulletin. To the police department for their splendid help at our party and for their year around cooperation in helping us to answer the fire alarms we are ever grateful. To the telephone operators who always do a tremendous job for us, we say thanks and well done. Our appreciation also to Patrolman Buck Boyles for escorting us on several occasions in the county. To one and all we say, thanks, and wish for you and yours a happy and safe new year. Let's make every week Fire Prevention Week in 1954.—Tryon Fire Dept.
