

Trio Convicted On Liquor Count in Rutherford Court

Two Rutherford County men and one from Polk County were convicted Tuesday in Rutherford County Recorder's Court of manufacturing liquor back of a girls' camp near Chimney Rock, almost on the Polk County line.

The still, according to testimony, was a big steamer outfit, and a number of barrels of mash were found with it. The still was reported to be ready to run off a batch, except for one pipe that remained to be connected.

The men were Cornelius Hudson of Mill Spring, Ralph Camp of the Sandy Plains section of Polk County, and Marvin Harris of the Lake Lure section. Neither offered to run or resist arrest, Constable Thad Flynn of Lake Lure said. Flynn made the arrests, assisted by Officer Abraham Lynch of Polk County. The Polk County officer helped, it was explained, because the still was so close to the county line it was feared the operators might have to be apprehended in Polk.

Judge Forest Robertson fined each $150 and costs, and sentenced each to 12 months on the roads, suspended on conditions.—The Rutherford County News.

BEAUTY UNDERFOOT

Watch your step these days! Because if you do, you'll see some beautiful new colors and patterns in hard surface floorings. Decorators can't say enough good things about floor tiles that last almost as long as you do, and need only simple soap and water mopping to keep them lovely. The new vinyl plastic floor tiles don't even need waxing—ever! One reason they look so decorative is because there's no base to these tiles, so that the color extends right through them from top to bottom. This makes for a richer, clearer color, of course.

Have you ever tried installing floor tiles by yourself? You can do your own floor decorating. You can plan the most effective borders or center motifs. And for the children's room, you can encourage orderliness by creating separate areas—an area for study, for play, for sleep. And you do it simply by using different color tiles on the floor for each area.—Soap Tips.
