

Orchids Here From Hawaii

A box load of beautiful orchids sent by air mail from Hawaii have arrived at Ballenger's Foodland as free gifts to the first 500 ladies who visit Foodland on Wednesday and Thursday. They are being kept in a refrigerator and will make beautiful corsages for the ladies attending New Year parties, says Manager A. L. Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ferree have returned from their Christmas vacation at High Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Warrington had as guests for the Christmas holidays Mrs. Warrington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Looper of Easley, S. C.

Miss Pat Johnson of St. Francis Hospital in Greenville, S. C., and Miss Valerie Johnson of Western Reserve University, Cleveland, O., have returned after spending the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Johnson.

The Spartanburg Herald reports Davie Caldwell of Landrum as a patient in General Hospital.

James E. Johnson Jr., of Eastern Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, N. C., is spending the Christmas holidays with his parents.

Mrs. Henry Bartol Sr., who is spending the holidays with her son, Henry G. Bartol and family at the Villa, will go to Oak Hall on Saturday to spend the winter before returning to the East.

The Rev. and Mrs. R. B. Hayes and children, Steve and Linda, have returned to Spartanburg after spending Christmas with Mr. Hayes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hayes.

1952 Ford half-ton pick-up, $825. Pierce-Wilson Motor Co., Phone 217, Tryon, N. C. —Advertisement 29, 30.

The Bulletin, $3.00 per year in the county; $4 per year elsewhere.

THE TACK SHOP

SALE OF LADIES COATS

1-3 OFF

Imported English and Scotch Tweeds, reversibles and regulars, sizes 8 to 18.