

STONY KNOLL NEWS

The Christmas holidays are being spent peacefully. Many friends and relatives have visited among us.

Home for the holiday season are Jerry Lee Mills, William Carson and Franklin Davenport from A & T College, Greensboro; Miss Evelyn F. Davenport from Columbia, S. C.; Miss Elizabeth Davenport, Woods Morgan College, School of Beauty Culture, Charlotte and Miss Helen Hayden, Charlotte; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin McIntyre of Norfolk, Va.; Miss Ida Lee Gray of Hendersonville.

The Sunday school departments sponsored a Christmas tree and program, assisted by the Junior Missionary Department, Saturday, Dec. 19.

The Children's Christmas Party was given at the Library on Saturday, Dec. 26.

The Harmonizing Four of Rock Hill, S. C., rendered a program at Stony Knoll Church, Dec. 27, at 3:30 p. m. Many friends throughout the county witnessed the occasion.

Sick in the community are: Mrs. Alice Feagan, Mrs. Emma Hayden and Mrs. Frank Lynch. Mrs. Hayden and Mr. Lynch are patients at St. Luke's Hospital.

Stony Knoll Library is wearing beautiful new window shades, a gift from Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gantt. We are sincerely grateful.
