The New Year Eve Party at Sunnysdale is the only big public event scheduled for the holidays in the Bulletin. There are many private parties, sometimes two and three a day. They are keeping the young folk moving and getting acquainted. There are a number here for the first time and are surprised to find a little community so busy. Chairman Harrison Bridgeman Jr., says the Christmas trees will be down by New Year's Day and that he will make a report to the people as soon as the electric bill is received. More praise was received on the beauty of the trees this year than ever. . . . Some people who were not here for all the holidays contributed because they said the cheerful spirit they created had already been worth the contribution they were giving and they wanted others to share it. . . . Business getting its house in order . . . Federal government drops 6,000 from payrolls. . . . Worst cold weather of the season is headed East from the Midwest . . . Avant Electric Co., will be closed all day New Year's Day. The Railway Express office will be closed Friday, Saturday and Sunday . . .

North Carolina's 1953 cotton crop is estimated at 453,000 bales (500-pound gross weight).
