

Leaves For Germany Soon

Jack Eargle, U. S. Navy, Washington, D. C., is home for two weeks before leaving in January for Bremenhaven, Germany. He says he would be glad to visit relatives and friends of Tryon people in that area and Holland and Denmark. If local people would like to send a message to them they may contact Mr. Eargle as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Dick III and children, Karen and Bobby IV, of Spencer, N. C., are arriving for the New Year's holiday weekend.

Jim Marshall of Summit, N. J., with Inter Chemical Co., Elizabeth City, is home for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Marshall.

Miss Jan Williamson has returned to Chapel Hill after spending Christmas holidays in Tryon with her mother, Mrs. Douglas Williamson at the Hearthside on Melrose Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Guilbert have returned to Tryon from a visit in Richmond, Va.

Bill Dobbyn has returned to Atlanta after spending Christmas with his mother, Mrs. Wm. A. Dobbyn.

The average price paid by North Carolina farmers for food items on September 15, 1953, were generally higher than those paid on the same date a year earlier.
