Slimnastics Class Re-Opens
Tues., Jan. 8

The spring term will begin January 8 at the Congregational Church, Melrose Ave., Tryon.

The group meets twice a week, Tuesdays and Thursday, from 10 to 11 a.m.

Dorothy Quest will continue to lead the TUESDAY group, as usual, but, because of her greatly increased portrait work, she has asked Alice Tennant (Mrs. Geoffrey) to lead the THURSDAY class. Mrs. Tennant also teaches a slimmastic class at The Meeting Place each Thursday.

Members may attend one or both classes. There is a small fee ($5.00) for music. It is the only cost for the entire 22 weeks.

Mrs. Quest observes, "The health benefits of regular exercise are enormous. Most doctors agree about the importance of exercise in achieving and maintaining good health and recommend it as a daily practice, especially during the winter months." She adds, "It will keep you limber, add vigor, promote good circulation, and best of all, help you sleep well at night."
