They All Say It's "Great"

We talked to several Jazz Buffs in Tryon about the Carolina Jazz Society group that will be performing at the Tryon Fine Arts Center on Jan. 12 at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m.

To quote Mrs. George Simpson, "They are absolutely marvelous. We have made special trips to Columbia to hear them and we plan to take in both afternoon and evening performances here."

Anson Merrick says, "They are just great, a terrific beat, have heard them several times in Columbia and we are looking forward to their concert here."

Jazz aficionado Joe Kerby told us, "they are as good as any Dixieland Players I've ever heard and I've heard a lot of them. We are looking forward to the concert."

If you want to hear real Dixieland Jazz the best place to hear it will be at the Fine Arts Center in Tryon on Jan. 12 when this great band, now in its 28th year, will give another of its terrific performances. — Report-
