

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

11 NOV 80
28722

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

Vol. 52 — No. 234

TRYON, N. C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 9, 1980

Price 10c Per Copy

Weather Monday: high 46, low 25, rain .04. Tuesday was cloudy and cool, with occasional rain.

The new display of paintings in the foyer of the Tryon Depot is comprised of watercolors by Mrs. Edward W. Russell of Tryon and works in various media by Miss Rita E. Landrum of Tryon and Greenville, S. C. The public is invited to view this exhibit until the end of March.

Local families who have hosted students from abroad recommend sharing your home with a student next year. They say it's one of the greatest gifts you can give yourself and your family. If interested call Mrs. Bill Miller at 894-3695.

Tuesday the Polk County Sheriff's Dept. and the SBI were rounding up drug suspects and a number of arrests were made.

Politics are beginning to pick up now as candidates are able to file. The deadline for filing is 12 noon February 4th. The Election Board Office hours are Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The Soviet Union cast its veto in the Security Council Monday, killing the resolution that protested their military intervention in Afghanistan. The vote was

Continued On Back Page

Tree Care Subject Of Rotary Meeting

The care and treatment of trees will be the subject of a talk at the Rotary luncheon meeting at the Pacolet River Plantation this Friday.

The speaker, Kenneth A. Knox of Hendersonville, is a consulting arborist by profession and is a member of the National Arborist Association and the American Society of Consulting Arborists.

Mr. Knox's talk will cover many phases of tree care, including their planting, the treatment of trees and other plantings from disease and the steps to be taken to recover from casualty losses.

Not At Bill's

Bill Plumley reported that the shooting last Friday night did not occur in front of his place, but between Julio's and Stokes Party Shop.

PROMOTED

Fred Edwards, Jr. of the Spartanburg County Sheriff's Department has been promoted to Agent-in-Charge of the county's narcotics and vice squads, Sheriff Larry Smith has announced.

Edwards, of Campobello, Rt. 1, has been with the department seven years and worked as a uniformed officer and as a detective before becoming a vice officer. Previously, the narcotics and vice divisions had been separate. — Spartanburg Herald

Announces For House Big Crash

Bob Jones

Robert A. Jones of Forest City has announced as a candidate for the Democratic nomination to the North Carolina House of Representatives for the 40th District including Polk, Rutherford and Cleveland counties. Mr. Jones has served in this capacity for ten years prior to 1979. During the 10 years that he served in the N. C. House he was chairman of six different committees including the House Rules Committee, and 5 joint House-Senate Committees, including the Ethics Committee, Property Tax Committee, Sex Discrimination Study Committee, Auto Tax Study Committee and Open Meetings Study Committee. He sponsored many bills that were enacted into law including the Ethics Bill, Capitol Punishment Bill, Open Meetings Bill and 40 bills intended to help eliminate sex discrimination in

Continued On Back Page

A Lay's Meat Packing Refrigeration truck crashed into the rear of Cowan's Supermarket parking lot on N. Trade St., Tryon early Tuesday morning. The truck arrived at the rear of Cowan's store about 4:30 a.m. and the two men, Keith R. Lewellyn, Sr. of Knoxville, Tenn. and Howard A. Wittenbarger of Seymour, Tenn. decided to get some sleep while they were waiting for the store to open. They set the brakes and climbed up into the cab. An hour or so later they were awakened by a big crash. The brakes had given away and the truck backed down the hill and ramed the lower level of the parking lot, knocking out concrete blocks and sending blocks from the wall on the parking lot down on the truck.

Gibbs Welding Services was called to help free the truck which was pinned under the parking lot. The back of the truck was crushed, but the men who were in the cab were not injured.

James Cowan did not know the extent of damage at press time Tuesday.

Dennis Morgan, son of Mrs. Hazel Morgan of Tryon, fell from a ladder recently and is a patient at Catawba Memorial Hospital. Mr. Morgan is manager of the Family Dollar Store in Conover.

Mrs. Ruth Turner Semashko of Horse Shoe has been named to the State Board of Elections by Gov. James B. Hunt.