

POLK LIBRARY
BGX 1-AA RT 1
COLUMBUS, N C 28722

11 NOV 80

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

12 Pages Today

Vol. 52 — No. 239

TRYON, N. C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 16, 1980

Price 10c Per Copy

No official weather report for Monday, but it was like spring with plenty of warm sunshine. Tuesday was more of the same. This is the kind of weather that made this area famous over the years.

Iran has ordered the expulsion of all American reporters because of what it called "biased reporting."

In one of the most lopsided votes in U. N. History, the U. N. General Assembly adopted a resolution Monday night protesting the Soviet Union's bloody intervention in Afghanistan.

Fighting has slowed down in Afghanistan as Russian troops seem to be gaining control of most of the country.

Women, who have begun to catch up with men in smoking, are catching up too, in the incidence of associated diseases and in three years will die more often from lung cancer than from breast cancer the U. S. Surgeon General reported Monday.

Thursday from 6:30 to 8 p.m. is the Lamb or Chicken Dinner at St. Luke's CME Church.

The Polk County Commissioners will meet Monday at 7 p.m. at the Stony Knoll Community Center.

New Year's Baby

The first baby born in St. Luke's Hospital this year was Devon Elaine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry Flood of Lynn. She arrived on January 12th. Devon has a sister, Patricia, age 10.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hartley of Norwood, N. C.; Richard Flood of Malvern, Pa. and Mrs. Elaine Haines of West Chester, Pa. The great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Blake of Michigan; Mrs. Marion Flood, Drexel Hill, Pa. and Jack Schappet, Pompano Beach, Fla.

Town News

The Tryon Town Council met Monday night at the Town Hall. The Board adopted a resolution to honor the Tryon Rotary Club and Rotary International on Rotary's 75th anniversary.

The Board approved a resolution prepared for the Town Auditor to release some outstanding water charges that had been on the books for a number of years.

The Town Attorney set Monday, Jan. 21st at 7:30 p.m. in the Town Hall for a workshop session to continue revision of the town ordinances.

Residents of the Dogwood Trail area requested the present status of annexation. Bob Henderson was the spokesman. The Council advised them that the only question the Town had was the road itself. A meeting was set with the Division Engineer of the

Continued On Back Page

Two Tryon Seniors To Get Scholarships

The Tryon Board of Education met Monday evening 14 January, 1980 with all members present. The State Superintendent of Public Instruction approved the recommendation of the planning and building committee for the auditorium roof, and the Board accepted the agreement with Brady and Brannon to do the work.

In new business, an Energy Management Policy was adopted as part of the school policy; there may be difficulties with the old elementary building and with using the high school with residual heat for night activities. The John G. Landrum, Jr. Educational committee of the Polk County Foundation Educational Awards program will award 2 seniors in English, History, or Mathematics with a scholarship of $500 each. The Board accepted Mrs. Fran Carruth's resignation and approved Mrs. Alice Edwards as substitute teacher.

Mrs. Lydia Clontz, representing herself and the PTA, complimented Bob Gregg on the excellent work he is doing around the schools in cleaning them up and keeping them clean, and his suggestion not to bring food and drinks into the gym. (This has been tried to be enforced in the past.)

Clontz also brought up the Policy on drugs. Superintendent Dusenbury admitted there is a drug problem — the schools and

Continued On Back Page

AFS Students At Rotary Lunch

The six visiting American Field Service students in Polk County will be guest speakers at the Tryon Rotary Club luncheon meeting this Friday. Accompanying them will be Mrs. Jean Pettigrew and Mrs. Carolyn Stoddard, co-presidents of the AFS Polk County chapter.

The six students, three at Polk Central High School and three at Tryon High School, arrived here in the early fall from six different countries and have won the hearts of their host families and their American schoolmates. They have been active in extra-curricular activities, have been easily assimilated in high school life and are becoming fluent in American English, with a southern accent.

The six students are: at Polk Central, Linda Nutting from England; Geir Olsen from Norway; and Francesca Zavolta from Italy; and at Tryon, Jean Mark Chapuis from France; Yoshie Osedo from Japan; and Doris Senn from Switzerland.

The Pacolet Hills - Hickory Grove Community Club will meet Tuesday, at 7 p.m. at the community building. The Polk County Unit of the American Cancer Society will present an educational program on Cancer and the need for early diagnosis and treatment. Dr. Thomas Bolling will address the club and answer questions.