Senator Helms
To Be Honored

Raleigh — Lewis R. Holding, Chairman of the North Carolina Public Service Award Society's Banquet, announced today that the 1980 recipient of the Society's Award will be United States Senator Jesse A. Helms. Proceeds from the event benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation.

Senator Helms will be the eighth person to receive the North Carolina Public Service Award. The first recipient was former Governor Robert W. Scott, followed by the late Senator B. Everett Jordan, Senator Sam Ervin, Jr., R. Phillip Hanes, Jr., Dr. Leo W. Jenkins, Mrs. Norma P. Cates and Bob Timberlake. The testimonial banquet honoring Senator Helms will be held on February 12th, 1980 at the Royal Villa in Raleigh. Chairman Holding stated that "A prestigious and elegant tribute is being planned to honor a man who has been extensively involved in civic, educational and philanthropic activities in North Carolina."

Program participants will include R. Stuart Dickson of Charlotte, John R. McNair of Winston-Salem, Senator Robert B. Morgan of Lillington, Dr. I. Beverly Lake of Wake Forest and Robert P. Pace of Cary.

Ticket information is available by calling the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at 919-291-7190.
