

Henderson Named Piedmont Council President

Rance Henderson

Charles L. (Rance) Henderson of Morganton has been named as President of the Piedmont Council of the Boy Scouts of America for 1980. Henderson is Director of the North Carolina School for the Deaf, while also serving as Superintendent of the North Carolina School For The Deaf in Morganton. In addition, he is an instructor in the Teacher-Training Program Area of the Deaf at Lenoir-Rhyne College.

Henderson received his B.S. and M. S. from Oregon College of Education, his M. A. from San Fernando Valley State College, and his L.H.D. from Gardner-Webb College.

The new president has been a Scouting leader for several years and has held the position of Chairman of the Tablerock District Scout Camp Development Fund Drive, Chairman of the Tablerock District Association of Baptists for Scouting, Tablerock District Chairman, and Piedmont Council Sustaining Membership Enrollment Chairman, Pacesetter Division.

Henderson is active in his community and is on the Board of Advisors at Gardner-Webb College. He is affiliated with the National Association of the Deaf, North Carolina Association of the Deaf, North Carolina Council for the Hearing Impaired and the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf.

A good, useful, anytime gift is a meat thermometer, especially if you like beef cooked rare. Beef is considered rare when roasted to 140, medium at 160 and well done at 170. These are internal temperatures taken in the center of the roast.

Senior Citizens Meet Monday

The Polk County Senior Citizens will meet Monday at 5:30 p.m. at the Meeting Place in Tryon. Leonard Bohner of Landrum will give an illustrated lecture entitled, "Interesting things God-made and man-made Around the World." Mr. Bohner has travelled to more than 80 countries in his more than 40 years of missionary and administrative service.

A supper will be served at 5:30, followed by a business meeting and program.

Betty Is 80

Mrs. Stanislas Czetwertynski became an octogenarian on January 17th and there was a great gathering of the clan in celebration of her birthday. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Marquette de Bary of New York City, the Morris and Barnes families from Birmingham, Alabama; Bill Woodall from Taos, New Mexico; Woodalls and Rumpfelts from Atlanta and the Ardens from Charlotte. All together there were forty with twenty members of the family not able to come.

Comply

Polk County and Tryon School Districts are among the 51 out of 144 schools districts in North Carolina which have reached 100 percent immunization compliance, according to the Health Services Division of the Department of Human Resources.

State law requires that all students, regardless of age, be protected against polio, measles, rubella (German measles), diphtheria, whooping cough, and tetanus, or be expelled until proof of immunization is supplied to school officials.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

Results of the Tryon Duplicate Bridge Thursday night were as follows: North-South: 1st. Frederick Chevalier and Dr. Jules Le Grande; 2nd. Mrs. Oliver O. Paulsell and Mrs. Stanislas Czetwertynski; 3rd. Mrs. Bert Anderson and Mrs. Earl Carter.

East-West: 1st. Mrs. Charles Dodd and Mrs. David Z. Porter; 2nd. Mrs. John Martin and Andrew Leslie; 3rd. (tie) Mrs. Miles White and Stanislas Czetwertynski with Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Olson.

Free Film Tonight

The free film presentation of the Polk County Public Library tonight at 7:30 is "Quality Street." The cast is Katharine Hepburn, Franchot Tone, Eric Blore, Fay Bainter. Yearning for vengeance, a spinster of 1805 England poses as her own flighty niece to charm and chastise a man who had disappointed her ten years earlier by going off to the Napoleonic wars instead of proposing marriage.

On Dean's List

The following Polk County students were named to the Dean's List at Isothermal Community College: Emily J. Brewer, Rt. 1, Tryon; Ann Gentry, Tryon; Dottie Jane Holt, Rt. 1, Columbus; Ruth Ida Jackson, Rt. 2, Mill Spring; Sara Wilkins, Tryon; Sheila A. Wilson, Rt. 2, Mill Spring.

TRYON SCHOOL LUNCH MENU

Tuesday: cheese-sausage pizza, buttered mixed vegetables, chilled applesauce, milk.

Wednesday: chili and beans, buttered mashed potatoes, golden yellow corn, homemade cornbread, milk.

Thursday: braised beef tips over rice, green garden peas, homemade rolls w-butter, peanut butter bar, milk.

Friday: shaved ham on homemade bun, mustard and mayonnaise, candied yams Hawaiian, fried breaded okra, milk.

TRYON SCHOOL BREAKFAST MENU

Tuesday: choice of juice, homemade peanut butter-oatmeal cake, milk.

Wednesday: choice of juice, homemade sausage roll, milk.

Thursday: choice of juice, warm apple danish, milk.

Friday: choice of juice, sausage and buttered grits, milk.

"Top Spin" Is Honored

NEW YORK, Jan. 17 — Ms. Val Haynes of Tryon and Ron Tetterton of Camden, S. C. are the owners of "Top Spin" which has placed sixth in the Second Year Green Working Hunter Division of the American Horse Shows Association-Insilco Zone Horse-of-the-Year Award competition held during 1979 in the Association's Zone 3.

Winners will be presented with their trophies and ribbons at an Awards Luncheon to be held January 27, 1980, at the Remada Inn in Charlottesville, Va.

The annual competition, sponsored by the Insilco Corporation, recognizes outstanding achievement among AHSA competitors within their respective zones.

On Dean's List

Two local students named to the Dean's List at Wofford College for the fall semester were Barry Lee Neal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Neal, Sr., of Columbus, a sophomore business major and Joyce Ann Payne of Tryon, a senior economics major.

Bayard Going To Washington

Andrew Ray Bayard, son of Dr. and Mrs. Walter Bayard of Tryon has been selected to attend a Presidential Classroom in Washington, D. C. during March 1 — March 8. The curriculum will focus on power and the Federal institutions and decision-making processes that form national policies. He and over 400 other outstanding high school students will study government and politics through direct contact with national leaders and Washington analysts.

Andy is a senior at Spartanburg Day.

New Shipment Ladies Spring Dresses $9.98 and up
Ladies Cheeno's Pants $7.98

New Shipment Blouses $3.98 and up
Come in and lay-a-way for Easter

Open Wed. afternoons and each evening until 6 p.m.

Toney's Discount Clothing

Landrum, S. C.