COMMUNICATION

Dear Mr. Vining,

Would you remind your readers about the building code ordinance hearing next Monday, February 11 in the court room? (3 p.m.)

We were asked over two months ago to get something in readable form so that the contractors, the home owners and the county building inspector would know what is expected in building a house.

We obtained a sample ordinance that is used in some North Carolina counties for a model but it is quite evident that it needs a great deal of modifying to fit Polk County's needs.

We have distributed copies of the sample ordinance and more are available at the tax office in the court house.

I hope those people interested in the building trade will come to the public hearing to help eliminate or add to this sample ordinance those things necessary to gear it to our county's need.

Thank you,
Opal Sauve
