

Charleston Spoleto

The bus trip to Charleston, S. C., June 2 through June 4th, to attend the Spoleto, a city-wide festival of performing and visual arts, has been met with enthusiastic response.

The chartered Trailway bus will accomodate 46 passengers and of this date 32 adults from the community have made reservations to attend. According to Lee Mueller, tour director, "This is an excellent opportunity for anyone interested in the arts to attend, with all accommodations prearranged, yet affording the opportunity to select the shows one prefers. There will be ample free time for tours of historic Charleston and surrounding area, as well as shopping and dining in Charleston's famous restaurants."

This cultural tour is a project of the Tryon Community Schools, offered to the adults of our area in appreciation for the support the community has given the Tryon Community School programs. For further information call Lee Mueller, 859-5428. — Reporter
