

Judge Wm. McLean

William K. McLean, an 80-year-old Asheville attorney and former senior resident Buncombe County Superior Court judge died Monday in an Asheville hospital following a heart attack.

McLean was Principal and teacher at Green Creek High School and in business before beginning the practice of law in 1929. While in Polk County he represented the county in the 1931 State Senate.

He was educated in Asheville, Elon College, Deauanna University in France and was a graduate of Wake Forest Law School. He was a veteran of World Wars I and II.

He was named a special Superior Court judge by former Gov. W. Kerr Scott in 1952 and served until June 30, 1953. He practiced law with Lamar Gudger and Bruce Elmore from 1953 until 1958 when he was elected to the Superior Court bench, a seat he kept until his retirement in 1975.

McLean was solicitor of the 19th District for four years and friends and observers said his experience as a prosecutor gave him his reputation for being tough on those convicted in his court.

Active in politics, he was a 1956 delegate to the Democratic National Convention.

The son of the late I. N. and Julia Buckner McLean, he is survived by his wife, Clara Whithead McLean; a sister, Mrs. Vonnie McLean Hipps of Asheville.

The funeral will be today (Thurs.) at 2:30 p.m. at West Funeral Home in Weaverville.
