

Salesman Of The Decade

W. Alex Walker

The highlight of the ceremony at Butler Realty annual meeting Sunday night was the unanimous selection by all Butler Realty stockholders and associates of Walker as the Salesman of the Decade. Mr. Butler said of Walker during the presentation speech "This salesman in addition to voluntarily accepting the responsibility of refrigerator maintenance officer has truly excelled in salesmanship. Hardly a selling season passes without Walker showing a client at least one marketable property." Walker's acceptance speech was cut short due to a phone call from his lovely wife, Jackie. Mr. Butler added that as a reward for this outstanding performance that Walker would be awarded an overnight trip to Pea Ridge, N. C. transportation and lodging to be paid for by the recipient. adv. 22,c. -
