For School Board

Charles Pat Feagan

Charles Pat Feagan of Columbus has filed for the Polk County School Board.

Mr. Feagan, age 34, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Feagan of Columbus. He is married to the former Mary Baldwin of Green Creek. He is a graduate of Polk Central High School and UNC at Chapel Hill. A member of Columbus Baptist Church, Mr. Feagan teaches a youth Sunday School class and coaches the church's basketball team.

He coached and taught for three years in the Polk County School System, first at Green Creek Elementary and later at Polk Central. After serving in the US Army, he worked several years for The Northwestern Bank as cashier and branch manager. He is now self-employed.

Mr. Feagan feels his years as a teacher and his management experience qualify him for the

Fires

The Tryon Volunteer Fire Department was called to two fires Friday night. About 6:38 p.m. they were called to the home of Ethel Miller at 401 Livingston Road. The fire had made a great deal of headway and all rooms except the two front rooms were destroyed. Fire Chief Clarence Scoggins felt that a faulty flue was responsible for the fire.

At 9:53 p.m. Saturday they were called to the Clarence Rhodes' Road where a giant trash pile caught fire.

District Finals Tonight At Tuscola

The District 8 Class A basketball finals will be played tonight at Tuscola High School near Lake Junaluska. At 6:30 p.m. Edneyville girls will play Hiwassee Dam and at 8 p.m. the Tryon boys will play Cullowhee.

The winners of tonights games will go to the state tournament at Garner (near Raleigh) next week.

Home Destroyed By Fire Sunday

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hudgins on old No. 19 near Hatch Mill was heavily damaged by fire Sunday morning. The Columbus Volunteer Fire Department was called at 11:04 a.m. The fire apparently started in a back bedroom, burned up through the closet
