

Clary-Champion

Miss Pamela Louise Clary became the bride of Ronald Dean Champion of Landrum in a 5 p.m. Saturday wedding at Drayton Baptist Church.

Daughter of Mrs. Rachel Mavorine Clary of Columbia and James H. Clary of Greenville, the bride is a ward secretary at General Hospital. She was graduated from Spartanburg High School and Spartanburg Technical College.

Mrs. Mike Teague of Gaffney attended as matron of honor. Mrs. Doug Spencer of Landrum served as a bridesmaid with Misses Tonja Roberts, Patty Farmer and Kim Taylor.

Mr. Champion is the son of Ray Champion of Howard Street, Landrum, and the late Mrs. Betsy Champion. A graduate of Landrum High School and Spartanburg Technical College, he attended Spartanburg Methodist College and works at Spartanburg County Highway Department.

The bridegroom had his father as best man. His brothers, Jimmy and Danny, both of Landrum ushered with the bride's brother, Cliff, and Doug Spencer of Landrum.

A church reception was held. The couple will make their home at 491 Barnwell Road when they return from a trip to Santee Cooper. — Spartanburg Herald

4-H Funfest Talent Show

The 1980 4-H Funfest Talent Show to be held at the Fine Arts Center, Saturday, March 22 at 8 p.m. is open to all youth in the county.

To participate, youth in grades 1-12, must participate in their school contest or audition first. The top five acts from each school will audition at the semifinals on March 11 at the 4-H Center at 6:30 p.m. All schools have the guidelines for the Funfest.

An open audition will be held Tuesday, March 11, at 5:30 p.m. only for those attending schools not conducting a show or audition, or for those Polk County youth attending school outside the county, or in the case of an act involving students from more than one school.

If you have questions concerning the Funfest, or would like a copy of the guidelines, contact Doug Roach, Assoc. Agricultural Extension Agent at 894-8218.
