HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS OF POLK COUNTY

Lt. Commander Paul Butler, retired U.S.N., a native Tryonite, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Historical Association on March 4th at the Polk County Library, Columbus. His subject will be "Historical Markers and Interesting Facts about this Area." He was chairman of the 1976 Centennial Celebration; he has been an active supporter and participant in the March of the Overmountain Men, commemorating the American Victory at Kings Mountain in 1780. He was influential in getting the Historical Marker replaced at Howard Gap after I-26 was built.

Of much interest to the student of Polk County history will be his display of books and materials used in his research. It is an extensive bibliography.

The day is Tuesday, March 4. The time is 2:30 and the place the Polk County Library. If you have data for the N. C. cemetery survey, please return questionnaire. — Reporter
