Chamber Music Sunday At ICC

The Downeast Chamber Players will appear in concert at Isothermal Community College on Sunday, March 2, at 3:00 p.m. in the ICC library auditorium. The concert is being sponsored by ICC, the Lamar Stringfield Music Club and the Lucille Wall Music Club. The public is invited. Admission is free.

The Downeast Chamber players combines the talents of three outstanding musicians to present a wide and varied repertoire from the Baroque through the Contemporary. Each member of the Players brings a wealth of chamber music experience as performers and master teachers. Formed in 1978, the group takes its name from the Downeast Chamber Music Center of Castine, Maine, where its members perform and teach during the summer.

Two of the musicians — violinist Mary Freeman Blankstein (who is from Rutherfordton) and cellist Marion Feldman — were part of the New York Lyric Arts Trio which performed on the ICC campus in 1977. The other member is Joseph Seiger, a faculty member of the Manhattan School of Music where he teaches piano and chamber music.

For their Sunday performance, the group will play Trio Sonata in B Minor by Loillet, Trio op. 70 No. 1 'Ghost' by Beethoven, and Trio in C Major, op. 87 by Brahms.

Time To Limit Congressional Terms

Have you ever wondered why members of Congress seem to find it so easy to pass laws to make our lives more complicated and expensive? Well, one of the reasons is that many of the laws they pass don't affect them! That's right; Congress has excluded itself from paying Social Security taxes, practicing affirmative action in hiring and of course, paying for postage.

Senator Patrick Leahy of Vermont, has introduced a bill to end Congressional exemptions from the Civil Rights Act, the Equal Employment Opportunity Act, the Equal Pay Act, the Fair Labor Standards Act, the Occupational Health and Safety Act, Social Security Act, Freedom of Information Act and the Privacy Act. No wonder those folks get attached to Washington.

In addition there is a movement in the land to limit the number of terms a Senator of Representative could serve, and some testimony before a Senate committee looking into that summarizes the problem rather well: "By limiting service for Members of Congress, we can revitalize representative government by bringing in people who understand what it's like to cope with federal laws, rules and regulations, as opposed to the 'career politician' who only knows how to make the laws and devise the regulations which are so often the cause for harrassment." For everyone but the politician that is, since they exempt themselves from most of the laws they pass!

On Dean's List

Sally Ann Copenhaver, daughter of Mrs. Martha Nesbitt of Tryon, has qualified for the fall semester dean's list at Wake Forest Unversity.

Miss Copenhaver is a freshman at the University and plans to major in history. She is on the staff of Old Gold and Black, the campus student newspaper.

Betty Luther of Columbus has returned home following surgery at St. Luke's Hospital. Will appreciate hearing from her friends.

Saluda Community Club

The Saluda Community Club was called to order by Rev. Tom Capell, Feb. 21st at Saluda Fire Hall after a delicious carry-in dinner. The hostesses were Cathy Diggs, Susan Folsom and Lee Gaudry.

Mr. Capell introduced James Gilbert, Saluda Fire Chief, who kept all interested in telling of the small beginning of Saluda Fire Department. The one fire truck purchased in 1926 or 27 lasted until 1950. With the help of fund-raising projects, summer folk donations, and $5000.00 from the city a used fire truck was purchased and later a tanker pump-truck. In the meanwhile, the present fire station was built.

As the system of communication has been very poor in Saluda, permission was granted by the Hendersonville Fire Department to become affiliated with that department by using a special radio system or "beepers". For this reason the telephone number for the residents of Saluda is changed to 692-3233. Since that time one fire has occurred five miles from the city and was promptly extinguished. There are now 32 members in the department, including junior firemen.

Mr. Capell stated that the Depot Renovation Committee would meet Tues., March 4.

Mrs. Mary Atkins was congratulated upon being named Fellow in the American College of Nursing Home Administration, which represents the highest honor which can be bestowed upon an administrator.

Mrs. Kilver said that a "Clean-up Day" would be announced soon. — Reporter
