field goal and Kirkendoll missed a tap-in at the buzzer, so the score remained tied 48-48.

After both teams had a turn over, the Rebels ran the clock down to 1.28 in the double overtime when Bruce Butler, trying to make a steal fouled Arney who made the front end of a 1 and 1 to put Cullowhee out front 49-48. This led up to Cunningham's basket for Tryon and then Cloud's winning basket for Cullowhee.

The Cullowhee Rebels were led by Jeff Cloud their tall center who had 21 points. Helping him was Robert Pool who shot 19 and when left open didn't miss. The Tigers didn't have one of their better shooting nights from the floor or from the free throw line. The ordinarily hot shooting Tigers hit 21 of 51 from the floor and 8 of 17 from the free throw line. The two guards, Butler and Cunningham led the Tiger scoring with 14 points each.

Tax Tips

FROM THE IRS (Political Contributions)

Most of us have received mail or telephone calls from workers for a candidate for public office, asking for contributions to their campaign. If you responded to such a request in 1979, you can claim it on your Federal income tax return on either the 1040A short form or 1040 long form.

Until this year, you could elect to claim political contributions as either a credit or a deduction, but that option is no longer available. For 1979, you must take the contribution as a credit, but the amount has been doubled. It is one-half of the total contribution to a maximum of $50 for a single return of $100 on a joint return. The credit is claimed on line 2a of the short form 1040A or line 38 on the long form 1040.

Contributions must in cash and made to candidates for nomination or election to a Federal, state or local office in a general, primary or special election; committees sponsoring such candidates; national, state or local committees of a national political party; or newsletter funds of an official or candidate.

The IRS has a free Publication No. 585, "Voluntary Tax Methods to Help Finance Political Campaigns" which goes into more detail on how you can claim your contributions.

And, incidentally, the $1 designated to the Presidential Campaign Fund is not considered a political contribution.
