Weather Tuesday: high 55, low 23; Wednesday: high 60, low 25. Thursday was sunny and mild, but on the windy side.

Guerrillas shot their way into the Dominican Republic Embassy in Bogota, Colombia, Wednesday, seizing Diego C. Asencio of the U. S. and at least 15 other ambassadors hostage. They demanded $50 million, release of all political prisoners and safe passage from the country.

George F. Kennan, a Russian scholar who served as ambassador to the Soviet Union in 1952 told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee that putting open pressure on the Soviets to withdraw from Afghanistan is only making it difficult for them to do so.

A unanimous Supreme Court ruled Wednesday that wives and husbands cannot block their spouse from testifying against them in federal court. Prosecutors cannot force spouses to testify against each other, but left the question of testifying up to the potential witness.

The State Department fears that Cuba may stop jailing skyjackers unless the U. S. begins prosecuting refugees who Want To Help?

The home of Ethel Miller was destroyed by fire last Saturday. If you would like to help, you may leave clothes, household goods, etc. at Cowan's Supermarket. Clothing sizes are: ladies size 18-20; boys size 29-30 pants, med. shirt; girl's size 5-6 and size 8. Or give to members of the Ladies Auxiliary, Tryon Fire Dept.

Want Adult Students

The college transfer students of Isothermal's Polk Campus are recruiting students. This small group wants other adults to join them in studying the general education courses that will apply to a university degree program. Five or six additional students will insure sufficient enrollment to form such a program.

Western Civilization is the first series of classes planned. The first class, HIS 101, will be offered this spring and registration will be held Monday, March
