

An Evening OF Poetry, Music, Dance

Sunday night at The Upstairs, Sam McMillan, formerly of Tryon, will return to the area with The Red Rock Floating Arts Troupe for an evening of poetry, music and dance. The evening looks to be an exciting one with a combination of the talents of dancers Jacquie Brown - Williams, Jacque Brown, and Tony Napoli with the music of Beam Furr and friends.

The troupe has successfully performed in Western North Carolina, most recently in Asheville where they were enthusiastically received. The February issue of The Arts Journal gave The Red Rock Floating Arts Troupe a very favorable review of this performance.

The performance will be given Sunday night at 8 p.m. at The Upstairs (above Tryon Toy-makers on S. Trade St.). Admission is free to the public ($1 suggested donation). — Reporter

When buying meat products, consider the amount of lean meat in a cut, as well as the price per pound. A relatively high-priced cut with little or no waste may provide more meat for your money than a low-priced cut with a great deal of bone, gristle, or fat.
