IT'S LEAP YEAR

Alex Trumble, III, is enjoying his third birthday today, after another four-year wait. He was born in La Jolla, California on this leap year day, 1968.

His second birthday was spent in Glencoe, Illinois. Alex is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Trumble of Tryon.

RHYMING A STORY I HEARD (..Extending the right hand of Fellowship)

The minister was preaching in a fashionable setting;
In a church stiff with egoism and pride,
When it became apparent that a layman was getting
Filled up with a spirit he couldn't hide.

So, the layman lifted hands toward heaven and said,
"Glory to God; Praise His great holy name",
As an usher, toward another, purposely nodded his head
And the congregation quickly understood their aim!

As the ushers led the old man back to the door
The old-timer was still mumbling and weeping
And while one usher said, "we can't have this anymore",
The congregation continued squirming and peeping.

"I was praising the Lord; I didn't mean any harm...
I have salvation", he said, brushing a tear.
Said the other usher, hatefully twisting his arm,
"May be so, but you didn't get it in here!"
