

Red Cross Changes Breakfast Date

Red Cross' launching of its 1980 Fund Drive was interrupted by the weekend storm. It is being rescheduled for Monday, March 10, with a 9 a.m. breakfast at Hearthstone Inn, Tryon.

Paul Jones, speaker and editor of some renown, will be featured.

The Polk County chapter's goal will also be reviewed in terms of current and projected activities.

All canvassers and special guests are asked to note the change of kickoff date.

Lewis-Brady

Charlotte Lewis and Lawrence W. Brady of Saluda, N. C. were married Saturday, March 1, at First Methodist Church of Orlando, Fla.

The Rev. Giles F. Lewis, brother of the bride, officiated. The attendants were Mrs. Robert L. Parsons, twin sister of the bride, and Howard D. Brewer.

Mrs. Brady is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Giles F. Lewis of Orlando, Florida and Col. Brady, United States Army, Retired, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Brady of Almanor, California.

After a wedding trip to the Bahamas, the couple will be at home in Saluda, N. C.

$12,000 Raised For Heart Fund

The passing of February concluded the Polk County Heart Association's fund raising activities for 1980. A. T. Pagter, Jr., M.D. Bd. Chairman; Franklin C. Basler, President; and Fred M. Schairer, Fund Raising Chairman concur that results from all efforts — Special and corporate gifts, Heart Sunday and business canvasses, church sponsored dinners, Rock 'n' Roll Jamborees, side-walk balloon days — were gratifyingly successful. The composite result, in funds raised — some $12,000 — and in extent of community involvement, marks the second consecutive year of the successful re-establishment of Polk County as an effective unit of North Carolina Heart Assn. Gifts from those thus far unable to contribute by reason of absence or illness are welcome: care of NCNB, Box 1000, Tryon.

GETTING MARRIED

One of the most important decisions a person ever makes is the decision to marry. Certainly, it greatly affects the future happiness of two people.

But more than that, society at large also has an interest in marriage because marriage is the foundation of a family. To protect society's interest in the institution of marriage all states have enacted laws designed to ensure both the legality and the stability of the marriage union.

Many couples view marriage as a serious spiritual commitment.

It is also a legal contract.

However, marriages are usually entered into on the basis of a couple's love, faith and trust in each other, and not on the basis of carefully negotiated documents. Nevertheless, marriage has legal consequences in such areas as estates, inheritance, taxation and support.

Your local library has a free leaflet on marriage, published as a public service by The Lawyers of North Carolina.
