Opens Bank
In Australia

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — North Carolina National Bank will become the first bank in the Southeast to open an office in Australia.

NCNB President Hugh McColl said today that approval of a representative office in Sydney, New South Wales, has been given by the treasurer of Australia and the governor of the Australian Reserve Bank. It is expected to be in operation by April 15.

McColl said the Sydney office "will be the key to our providing much better financial services to our U. S. customers and prospective customers who have commerce with Australia."
