Move Here

Mr. and Mrs. James D. Kingery formerly of New Canaan, Conn. have moved to Tryon and are living on Linecourt Drive while their home is being built on Skyuka Road near the Lawrence Bradley home.

Mr. Kingery, a native of Tilden, Nebraska, was Vice President of W. R. Grace & Co. He studied economics at Dartmouth College and business at Babson College.

Mrs. Kingery, the former Carolyn Tugow of Chicago graduated from Ferry Hall at Lake Forest, Ill.

They have three sons, James W., who is president of Nationwide Services, Inc. in Chicago; John C. an officer in Itel Corp., who lives in Walnut Creek, Calif. and Charles M., of Baltimore, Md. who is an account manager of General Foods. They have two granddaughters in Walnut Creek.

They both enjoy golf and are members of Red Fox Country Club. He also likes to fish and do vegetable gardening. Mrs. Kingery enjoys painting and flower gardening.

They heard of Tryon from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pexton and visited them here.
