

11 nov 80

POLK LIBRARY
BOOK 1-AA, RT 1
COLUMBUS, N.C.

28722

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

12 Pages Today

Vol. 53 — No. 30

TRYON, N. C. 28782

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 12, 1980

Price 10c Per Copy

Weather Monday: high 71, low 34. Tuesday was more like March with a strong wind and cooler temperatures.

The U. N. Commission leaves Iran without seeing the American hostages held in the occupied U. S. Embassy.

Classroom doors closed for some 25,000 students Monday as teachers struck four suburban Detroit school districts.

Hundreds of villagers in the drought-stricken state of Madhya Pradesh, India have been forced to eat grass because there is no other food.

The Tryon Boosters Club meets Thursday at 7:30 at the high school.

The Polk County Democrats will hold precinct meeting at the regular polling places Thursday at 8 p.m.

Women for Constitutional Government will meet Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at the Polk County Library in Columbus.

Friday at 8:30 p.m. "Diary of a Scoundrel, will be given at the Fine Arts Center.

Saturday is Super Saturday, a great day for youngsters — young and old.

The Tryon Little Theater is offering to refund the tickets for

Continued On Back Page

Skating Proposed At Tryon Gym

The Tryon School Board met Monday evening, 10 March 1980, with all members present. Superintendent Dusenbury gave progress reports on the elementary auditorium roofing plans and on the instructional computer service from Canton. Cowan, Massey, and Vining, chairman, were appointed to study an endowment of $5000 made in 1969 to see if a request should be made to dissolve it and put it into another endowment.

The Youth Center, proposed that through the Community Schools Program the open gym be opened in fair weather and the regular gym in cold weather to the Youth Center for roller skating. The Youth Center would provide skates and a music system. The Board is in favor of considering the proposal.

There are 3 student days to make-up. The Board voted to accent the Calendar committee's suggestions of Easter Monday, 7 April; 25 April (set up as a workday); and 29 May, a teachers' workday. Easter vacation is now 30 March to Easter, 6 April, inclusive. — League of Women Voters Observer

Little League Tryouts

The Polk County Little League will have tryouts Sunday, March 15 at 2 p.m. at Harmon Field.

Green Creek Little League

There will be an organizational meeting of the Green Creek Little League on Saturday, Mar. 15 at 3 p.m. at the Community Building in Green Creek. All parents and coaches are asked to attend. Several items of business will be discussed including selection of League President.

Polk School Board Tables Live Project

The Polk County School Board met Monday night in the Superintendent's office.

The Board agreed to accept applications for Superintendent until April 10th.

The sale of the Live Project Property was tabled at this time. (This is the property that the Industrial Arts Department used to build houses).

The Board agreed to help the Polk Central Boosters Club pay for a fence to be erected around the tennis courts.

The Board accepted the resignation of Mrs. Lenoir Bridges, Polk Central Lunch-room Manager as she is retiring and accepted the resignation of Robert Gunter, an Industrial Arts teacher effective March 14th. Mr. Gunter is going into private business.

Supt. Cromer announced that he had not received final approval of the Community Schools project but expected to

Continued On Back Page

Johnson Announced For County Council

Former Spartanburg County Commissioner Thomas P. Johnson has announced his candidacy for Spartanburg County Council in the Democratic primary.

He served on the County Board of Control and County Board of Commissioners from 1963 thru 1974.

Johnson was born in Cowpens, raised in the North Pacolet Church area and lives in Landrum. He is President of Landrum Insurance and Real Estate Agency, Inc. He married the former Mary Harris, and they have three children. He is a member of the First Baptist Church of Landrum, past Master of Landrum Masonic Lodge 278, and a Shriner.

He is past president of Landrum Ruritan Club, and is advisory director of the First National Bank of South Carolina, and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Tryon Federal Savings & Loan Association. He served on the Spartanburg County Board of Education for 10 years and was Clerk and Treasurer of the Town of Landrum for 10 years.

Johnson says, "I have had the privilege of serving on the governing body of Spartanburg County for 11 years. When the Legislature granted a large measure of Home Rule powers in 1968, I devoted my efforts to establishing firm basic operations for the new Commission so

Continued On Back Page