Win Trip To Tryon

Miriam Zimmerman and Brad Hoffman won a weekend in Tryon at Melrose Lodge by winning a dance marathon for Muscular Dystrophy last November. Students at George Washington University, Washington, D. C. they were allowed to wait until spring break to take the trip.

Miss Zimmerman, a freshman, is from Columbus, Ga. Mr. Hoffman, a junior, is from Philadelphia, Pa.

To win the trip they danced for 24 hours and raised the most money. They arrived in Tryon on Saturday evening and left Tuesday afternoon. They had no idea what Tryon would be like and said that they enjoyed the scenery and the people that they had met. They said the peace and quiet was a nice change from Washington.

Theatre Lives At Rotary

The vigorous survival of live theatre in spite of extensive competition from technological developments that have produced movies, TV programming, radio dramas, etc., will be discussed with Rotarians assembling at the Pacolet River Plantation at 12:45 Friday for a luncheon meeting.

The speaker will be Rotarian Stephen Fitch who has had broad experience on Broadway as leading man in ten musicals under his stage name, Stephen Douglass. He promises to enliven his discussion with reports on his leading ladies including Ginger Rogers, Gwen Verdon, Gretchen Wyler and Nanette Fabray. His all time favorite leading lady with whom he has shared his longest run is his wife Christine after whom their Landrum Florist Shop, The Fair Lady, is named.
