

Tryon Hounds Will Entertain Landowners Saturday

Tomorrow, March 15, members of the Tryon Hounds will give a barbecue for the local landowners who help maintain a lively tradition by permitting mounted foxhunting on their properties. All landowners are invited to the barbecue, which will be at Mr. and Mrs. P. Donald Williams' "Vestavia Farm" on Little Mountain Road at noon, following the spring Hunter Pace of the hunt club.

landowners, is invited to watch the Pace Event, beginning at 10 a.m. with 50 or more riders and horses competing. Pairs of riders will move off at three-minute intervals to negotiate a marked course beginning and ending at the Williams' farm. The event tests the ability of riders and their mounts to match the time approved for the course by the Hunt staff but not revealed to the competitors until all have completed the ride and recorded their time. The approved time represents the correct pace for following a pack of hounds in pursuit of a fox, and the winning team is that which comes closest to it.

"Vestavia" is across Little Mountain Road from the Tryon Hounds kennels, midway between Little Mountain Road's intersections with Peniel Road and Highway 14. Entrances will be marked.

When the Tryon Hounds was established in 1926, most of its sport was drag hunting in the "old Hunting Country" adjacent to Ridge Road. Through the years, more country has been opened up with the cooperation of landowners in the vicinity of Peniel Road, Green Creek, River Road, and Little Mountain, and there has been hunting at Fairview Farm just across the state line in South Carolina. For many years all hunting has been foxes (not drag hunting). In 1935, the Hunt received recognition from the Masters of Foxhounds of America. — Reporter
