

To Speak Here

Mrs. Donald L. Stone

On Tuesday, March 18 at 7:30 p.m. the Polk County Unit of the American Cancer Society will have a board of directors meeting at St. Luke's Hospital. Featured speaker will be an officer of the American Cancer Society in Raleigh, Mrs. Donald S. Stone, Executive Vice-President of the North Carolina Division.

A graduate of Florida State College with a B.S. in Education, Mrs. Stone has had extensive experience in personnel management, industrial relations, health, education and life-saving. Before coming to North Carolina in 1955, she served as Director of the Safety Services for the Greater Cleveland Chapter of the American Red Cross, and for five years as Executive Director of the San Diego Unit of the American Cancer Society. A noted swimmer and training coach, Mrs. Stone counts among her many honors and awards her stint as honorary Sergeant in the U. S. Marine Corps Amphibian Tank Detachment, specializing in swimming, lifesaving and warfare aquatics training. She holds eleven national awards for varied service and educational programs, and is the author of several publications important to the work of the American Cancer Society. She is listed in "Who's Who in Colleges and Universities"

Kiwanians To Hear About Polk Foundation

The Tryon Kiwanis Club will meet Tuesday at 1 p.m. at the Pacolet River Plantation. John G. Landrum, Jr. and Paul Culberson will be the guest speakers. They will tell of the origin of the Polk County Community Foundation and its accomplishments to date will be given.

Mr. Landrum is chairman of the Foundation and Mr. Culberson is the Executive Director. The Foundation receives money from members of the Community as gifts, administers the funds and makes distribution to Community activities. The Foundation itself is not engaged in any community activity.

The program will include slides illustrating the activities supported by these funds.
