Weeders To Host Landrum Clubs

The annual meeting of the Garden Clubs of Landrum will be held on Tuesday, March 18 at 3 p.m. at the Landrum Presbyterian Church.

Members of the Landrum, Spaders and Thrifty Garden Clubs will attend as the guests of the Weeders Club.

Mrs. Hazel Towe of Spartanburg, a nationally accredited Flower Shop Judge, will speak on the topic of Spring Flower Arranging and will give a demonstration. Mrs. Towe has had a broad background in the area. Not only has she conducted many workshops on Flower Arranging but she has also used her skill for the benefit of several organizations in Spartanburg.

Mrs. Towe has held the office of Secretary of the East Piedmont District of the Garden Club of South Carolina and currently is the District Chairman.

Following the program refreshments will be served.

But how much, exactly, is too much? A new TV program, "Enough or Too Much?" suggests some answers. Fourth in a series of four documentaries called "We're #1?" produced by the American Lutheran Church, the show brings a light touch to a serious question. Hosted by Steve Allen, it features popular "Man on the Street" vignettes. The show raises provocative ethical and moral questions related to America's penchant for overconsumption and materialism. To tune in, watch TV listings for time and station.
