Kelly Returns From Japan; Baker In Thailand

Miss Shawn Kelly has returned from Japan. She is one of the first Polk County students to go abroad under the AFS program. Her Japanese host father who is a doctor, has started a building for a clinic and when it is completed, he and his family will visit Shawn and her family.

At present, Shawn is auditing some courses at Polk Central prior to entering East Carolina in the fall.

Miss Sharon Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilkins of Hickory Grove has just arrived in Thailand. Prior to her arrival, she was in San Francisco for two days orientation and is now attending language training school in Bangkok before joining her large family in Ro-et in the northeastern part of Thailand.
