Guest Speaker

Dr. Charles E. Wittschiebe
Dr. Charles E. Wittschiebe of Silver Creek Road will be one of several guest speakers for the Wa-Rite weight-control program which begins at 7:30 p.m. Monday evening, March 24, in the Tryon Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Dr. Wittschiebe moved here from Berrien Springs, Mich., where he was Professor of Pastoral Care at Andrews University. He has since been named Professor Emeritus of Pastoral Care by that institution.

Since his semi-retirement, Dr. Wittschiebe has been much in demand as a speaker. He is interested in helping people achieve happiness and a good self-image.

This, in essence, is what Wa-Rite is all about; the achieving of good health, good habits, and a good self-image, all of which contribute to happiness.

The program will last for twelve Monday evenings, from 7:30 to 9:00 o'clock. Baby-sitting services will be provided. A registration fee of $20 covers all expenses. To register, call 894-8213.

cerned citizens might serve to reactivate such a bill. Won't you write a letter today? And, maybe when Elva Michael returns she will see a bronze Tryon horse placed at the entrance to the Fine Arts Center and clean roadsides.

Sincerely,
Patricia M. Dunton,
Chairman Polk County
Appearance Commission

To Hold Revival Services

Rev. Richard F. Horney
Lynn First Baptist Church, Thermal View Road, Lynn, N. C. will hold revival services Sunday, March 23 through Friday, March 28 at 7:30 p.m. nightly. Rev. Richard F. Horney, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, Newland, N. C. will be the guest evangelist.

Rev. Horney is a native of Avery County, N. C. After graduating from Crossnore High School, he attended Charlotte Piedmont Community College in Charlotte, N. C. In November, 1963, he married the former Norma Rush of Charlotte.

He received his Bible training at Tennessee Temple College in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

In 1969 Rev. Horney was ordained to the Gospel Ministry and pastored in Chattanooga for two years. In 1971 his family moved to Boone, where he pastored 5½ years and built the largest congregation in the area. In 1976 he moved to Newland, N. C. to begin a new independent Baptist Church. Emmanuel Baptist Church has grown and prospered under Rev. Horney's leadership.

Special music will be featured in each service. Among guest musicians will be Frankie Harder of Edneyville, gospel pianist and singer on Sunday evening; Calvary Baptist Male Quartet of Hendersonville on Tuesday evening; and Sonlight Quartet of Springfield, Missouri, on Thursday evening. The public is invited to attend. The Rev. Herb Putnam is pastor of the church.
