No official weather report for Thursday, but it rained off and on all day. Friday morning was beautiful. Later in the day, the wind began making itself felt and it was a typical March day.

The Trade Street area will be beautiful when the azaleas bloom. Additional azalea bushes have been planted along the railroad tracks at the turn around spot opposite the Tryon Theatre. Work on the stone steps up the bank where the Rock Grill used to be located will begin soon. Flowers are something that all of us can enjoy. No matter who plants them or who owns them — when they bloom all of us get to enjoy them.

The Extension Homemakers BAKE SALE is Thursday at 10 a.m. in front of G&K in Columbus and the Book Shelf in Tryon.

Thursday from 6:30 to 8 p.m. is the Lamb or Chicken Dinner at St. Luke's C.M.E. Church.

Saturday from 4 p.m. until ? the Ham & Chicken Supper will be held at the Pea Ridge Club House.

Sunday at 8 p.m. the Wofford College Glee Club and Ensemble will be at the Fine Arts Center.

New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. James Christopher of Landrum are parents of a son, James Joshua, born at home Friday morning, March 21. Both baby and mother were later carried to St. Luke's Hospital. He weighed 8 lbs. and has a sister, Jodi, who is 4 years old.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Chulik of Campobello. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Christopher of Landrum.

"Operation Pride" March 24—29

The following is a schedule of the Clean-up Campaign (called "Operation Pride") for the week of March 24 thru 29.

Large litter bags will be provided by the State. They may be obtained at the Highway Department throughout the week. On Saturday, March 29th (the Big Push Day) they will be placed in every school parking lot, Pea Ridge Community Clubhouse, Stony Knoll Community Clubhouse, The Columbus Courthouse, Tryon Town Hall and the Highway Department.

When filled these bags should be tightly tied and returned to any of the above points where they will be picked up by the Highway Department at 4 p.m.

Should you have too many full bags to carry to these points, please call the Highway Department.
