

For House

Fred F. Harrill

Fred Falls (Freddie) Harrill, 31, of Rt. 4, Shelby has announced for the North Carolina House of Representatives. Mr. Harrill is owner and president of a Porta-Pig Catering Service, Inc. since 1975 and farmed from 1973-75. He was a sales representative, W. R. Grace Co. 1970-73.

He is past president of the Lattimore Lions Club and past Master of Mooresboro Masonic Lodge No. 338, Scottish Rite and Piedmont Shrine Club Oasis Temple. He attended Gaston College and Western Carolina University.

He has been active in the Democratic Party and is a former precinct chairman, former Democratic Chairman of Cleveland County and past Democratic Chairman of the 10th Congressional District.

Mr. Harrill said that for several years he farmed cotton, soybeans and cattle. Since then, he has started and built the business that he now operates. He said that he works for a living and can identify with those who put in long and hard hours to earn their living.
