DIED SUNDAY

He has served as Chief of Staff and Chief of Surgery at St. Luke's Hospital where he was instrumental in setting up the Tumor Registry and in developing the Medical Library. Since his retirement from active practice last year, he has served as chairman of the Operation Outreach Program at St. Luke's Hospital.

He has been a member of the Tryon Congregational Church of Christ where he served as a deacon and trustee.

He has had a great interest in aviation and was one of the founders of Fairview Airport in Landrum. For a number of years he served as President of the Polk County Cancer Society. He was interested in government and recently became a candidate for Polk County Commissioner. He had been named the "Outstanding Young Man of the Year" by the Polk County Jaycees.

He is survived by his wife, Marion Kreider Bosien; a daughter, Cynthia Bosien Torgerson, Saluda Star Route; two sons, William Mark Bosien, Washington, D. C. and Timothy Jefferson Bosien, Tryon; 2 grandchildren.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be sent to the Scholarship Fund at the Tryon Congregational Church of Christ, St. Luke's Hospital or the Polk County Community Foundation.

A memorial service will be held Wednesday at 4 p.m. at the Tryon Congregational Church with the Rev. Richard L. Jackson, officiating.

On All-Area Team

Brady-Alexander

Miss Martha Lynn Brady and Charles Brian Alexander were married at First Baptist Church in Landrum, Saturday afternoon at 4.

They will make their home at 310 South Hampton Drive, Spartanburg. Both were graduated from Landrum High School.

The bride, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Otis W. Brady of Belize, Central America, is a teacher at E. P. Todd School. She attended Gardner-Webb College and will receive a degree from Converse College in June.

Mr. Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander, expects to graduate in May from Wofford College and plans to teach at Spartanburg High School.

Miss Charlotte Fletcher of Charlotte attended as maid of honor. The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. John Brady, of Greenville served as a bridesmaid with Misses Ellen Bailey of Gaffney, Alexis Copeland of Macon, Ga. and Kathy Wofford.

Mr. Alexander attended his son as best man. Ushering with the bridegroom's brother, Nelson, were Cary Upton and the bride's brother, John of Greenville and David Joe of Belize.

Officiating ministers were the bride's father and the Revs. C.W. Farrar and Mr. Holbert. A church reception was held. — Spartanburg Herald
