

undignified.) If I was late he would perch on a nearby tree and scold like a banshee — cheepcheepcheep CHEEP! chirp chirp chirp SQUAWK! By then even good spouse Bory had learned to recognize his call.

Some ten feet either side of our front entrance we have two hanging tubular bird feeders. When you go out the feeding birds scatter in all directions but, if you stop and stand perfectly still for a bit, they will start to come back and, if you do not turn your head too quickly, you may get quite a close look at them.

Doing this one day late in the fall I suddenly realized that my friend was on the left feeder scolding as usual for me to start out. I had barely begun to turn to look when, out of the corner of my eye, I saw him take off TOWARD me! Next thing I knew he landed on the high sheepskin collar of my heavy reefer coat and gave out a screech directly into my hearing aid, a screech that, to me, would put to shame the loudest train whistle. Needless to say I gave a mighty leap and hastened to start walking forthwith.

I am still not sure, but my fleeting glimpse placed his size
