Weather Wednesday: high 63, low 43. Thursday was cloudy and about noon the sun popped out.

Because of difficulty and discomfort, only one U. S. driver in nine used the safety belts in his auto, the Dept. of Transportation reported Wednesday.

Wednesday night Spartanburg Ch. 7 TV news had a report of the Tryon students painting the fire hydrants on Trade St. under the direction of Mrs. Nan Parsons. The Tryon Riding & Hunt Club is furnishing the paint, the art students, Richard Rardin, chairman are doing the painting. The little riders have created lots of attention.

The Democrats are having a fund raising dinner tonight at 7 o'clock at Polk Central High School. Tom Mallonee will be the guest speaker.

There will be folk and square dancing tonight at 7:30 at the Pickin' Parlor (4-H Center in Columbus)

Saturday from 4 p.m. until? is the Ham and Chicken Supper at the Pea Ridge Club House.

Sunday at 8 p.m. the Wofford College Glee Club and Ensemble will be at the Fine Arts Center.

It is unbelievable the amount of trash the Tryon High School

Clean-Up Saturday At Roseland

A clean-up campaign of the Roseland Community will take place on Saturday, March 29, beginning at 9 a.m. at the Garrison Chapel Baptist Church. The clean-up is in conjunction with "Operation Pride" and is being coordinated by the Mayor's Advisory Task Force, and assisted by the Town of Tryon. Residents of the community have been contacted to clean-up their own property and to assist in clearing the roadsides of litter. The Roseland 4-H Club will also participate. Streets that will be worked are Markham Rd., Livingston St., Cleveland Rd., Spruce St., Aspen St., Lyle St., Shepherd St., Tuckaway Lane, Jackson St., Elm St., Beech St., Peake St., Carson St., Depot St., and Howard St. (East and West).

Warren Carson, chairman of the Advisory Task Force, says that he hopes all residents of the community, young and old, will take part in this much needed clean-up effort. — Reporter

Fire Changes Wedding Plans

The wedding of Miss Kathleen Pitman and Charles McMillian scheduled for the Columbus Baptist Church on April 5th will be held April 5th at 7:30 p.m. at the Columbus Presbyterian Church. The change is necessary because of the recent fire at the Baptist Church.
