The Pacolet River Plantation would like to express our deep gratitude to the Tryon Fire Department, as well as all the others that helped us concerning our recent fire. While it is a terrible situation, we are very grateful that there were no injuries.

Our crews are now working long hours so that we may open soon. And again, we will be able to offer you excellence in dining and service.

We appologize for the inconvienece to our civic groups. We would like to speak to representatives of each, for re-scheduling of meetings. Please call R. Capps 859-6051, or C. Hageman 704-684-9781.

Thank you all for your consideration.
