Steeplechase Offers Picnic Prize

The coveted "Best Picnic" prize will be one of the more hotly contended events at Saturday's Steeplechase. While racegoers show their picnic colors on tailgates, along hillsides, and under trees, a mystery judge of culinary presentation will roam the grounds looking for what would be "the picnic most likely to succeed."

Formal picnics have tended to win the honors in the past, but this year's judge has indicated an interest in all kinds of spreads, from traditional American red-checked ones to the tailgate picnic-deco made popular in the seventies.

The "Best Picnic" winner will be presented a trophy, as are winners of the other events.

Picnic areas open at 10 a.m. on the Block House grounds, and races begin promptly at 2 p.m. — Reporter
