APPLE REFERENDUM

On Tuesday, April 8, 1980 all Polk County Apple Producers will be able to participate in a state-wide apple referendum vote. The referendum will be for a six year period as in the past. The growers will be voting to assess themselves three cents per packed bushel of apples and three cents per hundred pounds of processing apples. This is the same as the present assessment rate.

Polk County apple growers may vote at the following locations: Sunny View Grocery; Western Auto in Saluda and the Polk County Agricultural Extension Office, in Clumbus.
