III. Sandhill Pass, is owned by Walsh's grandmother and trained by his grandfather. Two of the horses, Mona Hill and Crazy Nut, lost their riders during the race.

The John S. Bradshaw Memorial was the fourth race. The $1,000 maiden flat race for three-year-olds and upward covered one mile. Big Mamou, with Ron Smith up and owned by Daniel H. Bauer came from behind to overtake Naskra Belle 75 yards from the finish and then Cannon Shot at the tape.

The Block House Feature Race — $10,000 hurdle race for four-year-olds and upward and covering two miles was the 5th event. Popular Hero was first, followed by Noble Deception and Red Brick House.

The final race was The Pine Crest — $1,000 flat race for three-year-olds and upward over 1 mile. Ruysch, with Gregg Morris up, was running in the back of the field, pulled even with Syl Va Lane and shot into second place barely 50 yards from the finish and then put on a tremendous burst of speed to overtake French Chef right at the finish line.

Guests of John Vining of Tryon this past weekend were Coy Lowman, Johnston, S. C., Kent Oliver, Spartanburg, S. C., Pete Prokop, Youngstown, Ohio; Brian Hoover, Clemson, S. C. and Calvert Sherard, Calhoun Falls, S. C. All are classmates at Clemson University.
