Communication

April 7, 1980

The Polk County Appearance Commission would like to publicly acknowledge all the people who participated in the Clean-up Drive of Operation Pride 1980. Many individuals, without any fanfar or publicity, demonstrated their pride in their beautiful countryside by picking up litter. Some even bought their own bags because the state bags were not always available where they were supposed to be.

Some particular organizations and groups deserve special mention:

- The students at Tryon High School who picked up around the Tryon triangle.

- The students who painted the fire hydrants in Tryon.

- The 4-H young people in Columbus

- The 4-H Club in Stony Knoll

- The Tryon Bulletin, Thermal Belt News and Station WTYN for support and publicity.

- The members of the Pea Ridge Community Club House who picked up 3½ miles of roadside litter.

- Saluda — which was probably the best organized community.

- The Lions Club of Columbus

- The Kiwanis Club of Tryon

- The N. C Highway Dept.

- The Roseland Community.

Operation Pride 1980 will not end with this Clean-up — this is only the beginning. We are determined to continue — for example, to dispose of some of the unsightly "dump spots", and

Move Here

The Rev. and Mrs. Ted Dougherty, formerly of Columbia, S. C. have moved into their new home at the base of White Oak Mountain, Columbus. Mr. Dougherty was pastor of the Kilbourne Park Baptist Church in Columbia prior to his retirement. He is a graduate of Furman University and Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. Dougherty is the former Virginia Clay of Winston-Salem. She enjoys antiques, interior decorating and needlecraft.

Mr. Dougherty likes to garden, hunt and fish.

They have two children — Dr. Ted Dougherty, Jr., Director of Pastoral Counseling at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem; and Mrs. Michael Turner of Laurens, S. C. They each have two children, making four grandchildren for the Doughertys.
