Japanese Doll Festival Exhibit

In ancient times Japanese dolls, usually paper, were used to ward off evil spirits and guard against misfortune. It is from this that the annual Doll Festivals have evolved. The exhibit may be seen this month at the Polk County Library in Columbus. The Girls Festival was March 3rd and the Boys Festival is May 5th.

The Girls Festival displayed dolls and furniture of fine workmanship with costumes and furniture popular among the nobles. The Boys Festival is celebrated with miniature banners, warriors and a variety of weapons. The dolls are made of clay, wood or straw, or a combination. Some are dressed by painting the clothes on them, others by dressing with miniature clothes.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Austin have returned to Irmo, S. C. after visiting Mr. Austin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Austin in Landrum.
