Spartans Named By Libertarians

Two Spartanburg area men were among candidates nominated at Saturday's Libertarian Party Convention in Columbia.

Tom Waldenfels, 25, of Landrum will be the party's candidate for Congress from the 3rd District. Tom Campbell, 25, of Blacksburg, will seek the 4th District seat.

The party, which was certified in South Carolina just a year ago, also tentatively nominated former University of South Carolina professor Phil Dematteis to run for the U. S. Senate seat held by Democrat Ernest F. Hollings. — Spartanburg Herald

Bagwell Named Roads Division Head

Friday's Spartanburg Herald reported that Joe Bagwell of Landrum had been named acting director for the Spartanburg County Road Maintenance Department, contrary to a recommendation by County Council.

Bagwell is an assistant to former Spartanburg County Supervisor Jack West.

Joel Dermid, county engineer and acting public works director, said that he was responsible for making the decision and felt that Bagwell was the logical fellow for the job.

Councilmen had suggested that their original intent was to leave West in charge of road maintenance until his elected

John Austin Retains Seat

District 1 incumbent John S. Austin picked up five votes in the recheck of the School Trustee election and was declared the winner over Charles R. (Bobby) Warren. The unofficial count had shown a 342 vote tie between Austin and Warren. Austin joined James M. (Jimbo) Petty and John A. Morrow for the three seats on the Board.

Senior League Tryouts Today

The Polk County Senior League tryouts will be held today at 5 p.m. at Harmon Field. The sign up for the various teams will be done at this time.

To Compete In Math Contest

CULLOWHEE — Some 26 Polk County students will compete in the 10th annual Western Carolina University High School Mathematics Contest April 24 in Hoey Auditorium at WCU.

The students will be among more than 500 contestants representing 45 Western North Carolina schools. They will be competing in four divisions — Algebra I, Algebra II, Geometry and Comprehensive.

Winners in the senior-level Comprehensive Division who score in the top five per cent, not to exceed 10 students, will qualify for the state high school math contest to be held in May.

Contestants from Polk County, by division:

Tryon Middle School — Jessica Lonnes, Michael Carson, Algebra I.

Students from Tryon High also will participate.

Weather Friday: high 79, low 40; Saturday: high 72, low 40, rain .15; Sunday: high 59, low 52, rain 1.90. Rain at 7 a.m. Monday was 2.37. And it rained some more, but the sun kept peeping through from time to time.

The rain over the weekend knocked off all the red bud blossoms but it seems as if the azaleas and dogwoods took their place.

Senator Kennedy rejoiced over his narrow Arizona victory over President Carter, but Carter picked up big blocks of delegates in South Carolina and Virginia.

Jennifer and Michael were again the most popular names for children born in New York City last year. In order of preference the other popular girls names are Jessica, Nicole, Melissa, Michelle, Lisa, Elizabeth, Maria, Christine and Danielle. The other popular boys names are David, Jason, Christopher, John, Joseph, Anthony, James, Robert and Daniel.

Severiano Ballesteros of Spain captured the Masters Golf Tournament with a 4-stroke victory. His 275 total, with a 72 in the final round, made him the youngest winner of the Masters and only the second foreigner
