Two Break-Ins In Columbus

A thief or thieves broke into the Columbus Gulf Station and the Chevron Station near the intersection of Hwy. 108 and I-26 early Sunday morning. The break-ins occurred between 1:30 and 7:30.

The Gulf Station was entered by breaking a window in the grease rack and going into the office where $450 in cash and 170 cartons of cigarettes were taken. On leaving the Gulf Station, they took one can of oil and threw it through the window in the grease rack of the Chevron Station and entered through the window. They got into the office and tore a drawer out of the desk. $800 to $1000 in change was taken as was 100 cartons of cigarettes. A Marlin magnum rifle was also taken from the Chevron Station.

The robberies are being investigated by Columbus Police Chief Dock Wilson and Deputy Sheriff Robert McKee.

Bloodmobile A Tribute

To Dr. Wm. R. Bosien.

Next Monday, April 21, the Red Cross Bloodmobile will be in Tryon and the occasion has been designated by the Red Cross as a memorial to the late Dr. William Riley Bosien.

Red Cross' staff of professional and volunteer workers will be at the Parish Hall in Holy Cross Episcopal Church from 12:30 to 5:30 p.m. Monday.

"In his long service to the people of this area and to St. Luke's Hospital, Dr. Bosien certainly knew the value of this vital blood donation program," Richard E. Weiss, Red Cross Chairman, said. "The bloodmobile program provides doctors, like Dr. Bosien, with the life saving supports of plasma and whole blood. If volunteers do not support the program with donations of their blood, this kind of help would not be available when needed."

Anyone who is more than 17 years old, weighs more than 110 pounds and is in good health can donate blood, the Red Cross said. The process is simple: Come to the Parish Hall at your convenience on Monday afternoon and be examined by a qualified nurse who will take your blood pressure, pulse and medical history. After that it takes only six to eight minutes to transfer a pint of your blood to the blood bank.

Donors come from all age
